

J2EE Developer

Recruiting Period: November 20, 2009

Annual Salary Minimum: $50,000

Annual Salary Midpoint: $55,000

Annual Salary Maximum: $60,000

Benefits:

- This is a full time position with a State Agency located downtown.
- 12 paid holidays
- Three weeks paid vacation first year
- Paid Sick Leave
- Flex time and Limited Telecommuting available after probationary period.
- Convenient to Marta, Van pools, Transit buses.
- Retirement plan, 401k, Medical, Dental, more....

Duties and Responsibilities:

- Work as developer to enhance and build new systems
- Producing Code: produce, review and document high quality code reflecting programming and security best practices.
- Solving Problems: interest in and capacity to recognize technical problems and to solve them.
- Team Interaction: ability to work well in teams to proactively share knowledge, information, problems and solutions.
- Understanding Requirements: Understanding the underlying business requirements, and capacity to create code that will meet same

Minimum Training and Experience:

Software developer who has experience in developing software applications based on Java Enterprise Edition. The Java developer will work in a software development team on data exchange projects mainly. The developer will participate in development efforts throughout the design, build, test, production release & ongoing maintenance phases for projects. The developers' main responsibilities will be in working struts and JSF applications with an Oracle backend. This is a position to be filled by someone who enjoys programming in a challenging environment and wants to help improve the technology available to the states judiciary. Sun Systems certifications favorable

- Bachelors Degree Required
- Masters Degree preferred

Preferred Qualifications:

The ideal candidate will have worked with J2EE based web design projects within the past year. In particular, the following skills & experience are highly attractive for any prospective candidate:

- 1+ years in J2EE software development
- 3+ years in web application and user interface software development
- Experience with Enterprise Java Beans
- Experience with Java Server Faces
- Experience with JSP/Servlets
- Experience working with relational database systems
- Experience with Java web container and application servers like Tomcat and JBOSS
- Experience with XML Schemas
- Experience with CVS or other versioning system a plus
- ASP, JavaScript

To apply please send resume to: resume.gaaoc.us

Subject Line MUST contain: J2EE Developer