

Dr. Kenneth D. Robinson
President/Founder
Correctional Counseling, Inc.
Memphis, Tennessee

Dr. Robinson is one of the most respected teachers and lecturers on cognitive-behavioral treatment and correctional counseling. Dr. Robinson has published and presented numerous professional articles in the areas of corrections and criminal justice services and is co-developer of Moral Reconciliation Therapy (MRT®) and Social Responsibility Training (SRT®). He is co-author of over 20 books and workbooks.

Dr. Robinson's extensive work in mental health and corrections provide a unique combination of insight and expertise. While Director of Clinical Services for Midtown Mental Health Center in Memphis, Tennessee, he established the first Crisis Stabilization Unit for the city. He worked in mental health services for the Shelby County Correction Center for twelve years, as well as the State Regional Prison in Memphis, before founding Correctional Counseling, Inc.. He is currently a faculty member of the National Judicial College and has also served as a consultant to the Bureau of Justice. He is a member of the National Faculty for DWI courts for the National Highway Traffic Safety Association, sharing his expertise in the area of assessment, psychopharmacology, and treatment that works for defendants.

Dr. Robinson has been working with alternative sentencing and Drug Courts for the past thirty years. Specifically, he has participated on the faculty of The National Association of Drug Court Professionals and The National Drug Court Institute since their inception and is on the Editorial Board of the National Drug Court Institute Review Journal. He is currently on the advisory committee working with Healing and Wellness Drug Courts with tribal nations. Additionally, Dr. Robinson is on the planning team and is involved in evaluations of Drug Courts nationally.

Dr. Robinson received his Doctor of Education Degree in Educational Psychology and Counseling, and his Master of Science Degree in Psychology from Memphis State University.